PARENT'S TALK

I'm Manpreet singh. Both our children have hugely benefited from a wonderful education at CIS Gurdaspur. Since joining CIS, our daughter Shagunveer has blossomed into a very talkative toddler who clearly has no problem expressing her thoughts and ideas to us at home! She may seem quiet in class but we know she's been an observer. What she has learnt in school over the past 1.5 years has been a fruitful adventure – making her very curious about the world she lives in.

At the end of each day, we always ask Shagunveer if she had a lovely time at school and her answer is always 'very good'. And she would go on to tell us a bit about her friends and what she did that day, etc. To us that is what we refer to as a 'happy education'. And because of this, we are forever grateful for the start she's been given with and the teachers who have taught her.
